The Prince Wikipedia

The Prince (Italian: Il Principe [il print ipe]) is a 16th-century political treatise by the Italian diplomat and political theorist Niccol Machiavelli. From his correspondence, a version appears to have been distributed in 1513, using a Latin title, De Principatibus (Of Principalities). However, the printed version was not published until 1532, five years after Machiavelli's death.

The Renaissance of Machiavelli Commonweal Magazine

[This paper, the second of two, was first published in the September 21, 1927 issue of Commonweal. You can read the first paper here]. In a letter to Vettori, dated December 10, 1513, Machiavelli has left a description of his life in exile, at once so eloquent and so revealing as to the private character of the man that common fairness demands at least a short, condensed quotation.
